Travel Light, Cook Hard, Save the Earth!

You are...the new kid on the underground cook-off circuit, a seedy network of wannabe Iron Chef competitions. Learn and research new recipes. Cook in exciting, precision-based challenges based on realistic food preparation (but taken to absurd levels). In short order, become the best Fight Chef on Earth but now the REAL competition begins! Suddenly, you will get entered in an intergalactic cook-off circuit where winning could be the difference in Earth becoming a fast-food starship/truck stand or remaining the culinary paradise that it is! Save the Earth!

Features:

- Engage in hilariously energetic short-session cooking action
- Precision-, skill- and timing-based activities make competition cooking fun!
 - Built for touchscreen play, taps, swipes and tight gesture gameplay enhance the experience!
- Over-the-top, anime-style story & characters equal distinctive personality to stand out in app store!
 - Adult Swim meets Iron Chef meets Ramen Fighter Miki (with a dash of The Last Starfighter)

- Research new recipes in a variety of culinary styles (by key ingredients, cultural menus and more) – the more recipes you have, the better you can do in competitions – go wide or deep, it's up to you!

- Purchase new equipment that helps make cooking easier and more efficient – everything from prep tools to knives to stovetops – with your travelling kitchen, you can cook anywhere, anytime.
 - Equipment ranges from realistic to wild science-fiction (for example, neutrino knives, cutting at the atomic level!)
- Compete in a Campaign in a tournament series against increasingly challenging Chefs from all around the world...but that's just the beginning. The real competition lies out amongst the stars!

- Play competitively with friends real-time and asynchronously!
 - Choose your recipes wisely – it's time versus effort and you don't want to lose!
 - Bet on outcomes – pink slip competitions for equipment or recipes make winning awesome!
- Galaxy Chef is being built as an energetic, rewarding Free-to-Play title using established monetization strategies. With a focus on recipes, upgrades, desirable consumables and social connections, Galaxy Chef will keep players engaged and keen to compete!
 - Cooking Gas is the energy currency – use the gas to enter tournaments; no gas, no entry!
 - Earn Funds by placing in competitions; earn CookStars (hard currency) by winning stylishly!
 - Spend Funds researching new recipes, purchasing new equipment or customizing your character
 - Buy consumables such as special ingredients, replays and time dilation
 - Engage in social support mechanics like gifting Cooking Gas & sharing recipes
 - Build Complete Cook Sets, gacha-style, and gain additional performance benefits!
